

TAXPAYER’S GUIDE TO LOCAL PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTIONS

SENIORS

Clauses 41, 41B, 41C, 41C½

The Department of Revenue (DOR) has created this fact sheet to provide general information about local property tax exemptions for seniors. It is not designed to address all questions or issues and does not change any provision of the Massachusetts General Laws. To find out about the specific eligibility and application requirements in your city or town, you must contact your local board of assessors. The DOR cannot determine your eligibility or give you legal advice. Property taxes are assessed and collected by cities and towns, not by the DOR. Under state law, only your board of assessors, as the local tax administrator, can decide whether you qualify for an exemption. If you disagree with its decision, you may appeal to the state Appellate Tax Board (or county commissioners if your county’s government has not been abolished).

INTRODUCTION

Cities and towns may give property tax exemptions to some individuals as defined by state law. An exemption discharges a taxpayer from the legal obligation to pay all or a part of the tax assessed for the fiscal year. Exemptions are found in various clauses of Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 59, Section 5 (M.G.L. c. 59, § 5).

Clauses 41, 41B, 41C or 41C½ provide exemptions to seniors who meet specific ownership, residency, income and asset requirements. Seniors 70 or older may, alternatively, qualify for exemption under Clauses 17, 17C, 17C½ or 17D, which provide a reduced benefit, but have less strict eligibility requirements. Clause 41 is the basic exemption for seniors. Over the years, as income and asset values rose, the Legislature enacted alternative exemptions (Clauses 41B, 41C and 41C½), and options within those exemptions, that cities and towns may adopt.

Clause 41 applies unless the legislative body of your city or town has voted, subject to local charter, to accept another clause. The most recently accepted clause establishes eligibility rules in your city or town.

EXEMPTION AMOUNT	Clauses 41, 41B, 41C $500 Clause 41C½ 5% of the average assessed valuation of residential property in your city or town. The Clause 41C exemption may be increased up to $1,000, by vote of the legislative body of your city or town. The Clause 41C½ exemption may be increased up to 20% of the average assessed valuation of residential property in your city or town, by vote of the legislative body of your city or town.

For more information, please contact your local assessors.

APPLICATIONS	You must file an application for each fiscal year with the assessors in the city or town where your property is located. The application is due on April 1, or three months after the actual tax bills are mailed, whichever is later. Filing on time is required. By law, the assessors may not waive this filing deadline, nor act on a late application, for any reason. Filing an application does not entitle you to delay your tax payment.
DOCUMENTATION	You must provide the assessors with whatever information is reasonably required to establish your eligibility. This information may include, but is not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Birth certificates. 2. Evidence of ownership, domicile and occupancy. 3. Income tax returns, bank and other asset account statements.
NUMBER OF EXEMPTIONS	With limited exceptions, you may only receive one exemption under M.G.L. c. 59, § 5 for each fiscal year. If you qualify for more than one, you will receive the one that provides the greatest benefit. You may receive an exemption and if qualified, defer all or a part of the balance of the reduced tax.
ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS	You must satisfy tests relating to age, domicile, ownership, occupancy, annual income and assets. You must meet all eligibility requirements as of July 1 of the tax year. (The fiscal year of cities and towns begins July 1 and ends the following June 30.) If you do not meet all requirements as of July 1, you cannot receive all or any portion of the exemption for that tax year. If you own the property with someone who is not your spouse, for example, your children, siblings or other relatives, then each of the other co-owners must also satisfy the annual income and asset tests.
AGE	You must be 70 or older. For Clauses 41C and 41C½, the eligible age may be reduced to 65 or older, by vote of the legislative body of your city or town.

OWNERSHIP AND DOMICILE	You must own and occupy the property as your domicile. Your domicile is where your principal and legal home is located, your family, social, civic and economic life is centered and you plan to return whenever you are away. You may have more than one residence, but only one domicile. For Clauses 41B, 41C and 41C½, you must also have had a domicile in Massachusetts for 10 consecutive years before the tax year begins, and have owned and occupied the property, or any other property in Massachusetts, for any 5 years. The 10 year continuous domicile requirement for Clause 41C½ may be reduced to 5 years, by vote of the legislative body of your city or town. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Under Clauses 41, 41B and 41C, your ownership interest must be worth at least $4,000. You may own this interest solely, as a joint owner or as a tenant in common. If you own the property with someone who is not your spouse, your exemption will be equal to the same percentage of the exemption as your ownership interest in the property, for example, 50% if you are a joint owner with one other person. 2. If you hold a life estate in the domicile, you are the owner. 3. If your domicile is held in a trust, you are the owner only if: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. You are a trustee or co-trustee of that trust, and b. You have a sufficient beneficial interest in the domicile.
INCOME LIMITS	Your income (gross receipts) for the previous calendar year cannot exceed a specified limit. Each clause has a different limit. Gross receipts means income from all sources and is broader than taxable income for federal or state income tax purposes. Ordinary business expenses and losses are deducted but not personal or family expenses. If you received income from social security or certain public pensions systems in the prior calendar year, the assessors will deduct a “minimum social security” allowance, which is set by the DOR each year. If you are single, your allowable gross receipts can range from $6,000 (Clause 41) to the limit for the “circuit breaker” state income tax credit for single non-head of household filers (Clause 41C½). If you are married, the limit is based on the combined gross receipts of you and your spouse and ranges from $7,000 (Clause 41) to the limit for the “circuit breaker” state income tax credit for single non-head of household filers (Clause 41C½). For Clauses 41, 41B and 41C, the gross receipts limit may increase annually by the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) determined by the DOR each year. For Clause 41C½, the gross receipts limit may be applied to the combined income of you and your spouse or other household members. These adjustments apply only if the legislative body of your city or town has voted, subject to local charter, to accept the local option.

ASSET LIMITS	Your assets (whole estate) on July 1 cannot exceed a specified limit. Each clause has a different limit. Whole estate means all assets to which you have legal title and access as sole, joint owner or trustee that contribute to your total worth. The value of the applicant’s cemetery plots, registered motor vehicles, wearing apparel and household furniture and effects located in the domicile is not included in the calculation of the applicant’s whole estate. In addition, the value of the domicile is generally not included, but depending on the clause, portions generating income or over a certain number of units may be included. If you are single, your allowable whole estate can range from $17,000 (Clause 41) to $40,000 (Clause 41C). If you are married, the limit is based on the combined whole estates of you and your spouse and ranges from $20,000 (Clause 41) to $55,000 (Clause 41C). There is no asset limit under Clause 41C½. For Clauses 41, 41B and 41C, the whole estate limit may increase annually by the percentage increase in the CPI determined by the DOR each year. This increase applies only if the legislative body of your city or town has voted, subject to local charter, to accept this local option.
EXEMPTION CREDIT	If the assessors decide you are eligible and grant an exemption, the amount granted is credited toward and reduces the tax outstanding on your domicile for the fiscal year. You will not receive a refund unless you have already paid the entire year’s tax, as reduced by the exemption, at the time the exemption is granted.
SALE OF DOMICILE	If you are selling your domicile, you should make your attorney aware that you receive a property tax exemption that reduces the tax owed for the fiscal year. The sale is a private financial transaction and as a party, you are responsible for seeing that the exemption is properly credited at the closing, through escrow or other arrangements, when the parties make adjustments for local property taxes or charges. Your city or town is not responsible for seeing that you and the buyer allocate the property taxes so you get the benefit of the exemption.

APPEALS
Appellate Tax Board	The Appellate Tax Board (ATB) is an independent, quasi-judicial state board that hears taxpayer appeals from local assessors' decisions on property tax abatements and exemptions. If county government has not been abolished, appeals may be made to the county commissioners instead, but assessors may and usually do transfer those appeals to the ATB. ATB decisions may be appealed to the Appeals Court and, ultimately, to the Supreme Judicial Court. You can obtain the ATB's guide to the property tax appeal process from its website (www.mass.gov/atb) or by calling 617-727-3100.
Appeal of Action of Assessors	You have three months from the date of the assessors' decision on your exemption application to appeal to the ATB. This includes decisions to deny any exemption or to grant an exemption that provides a lesser benefit. If the application was deemed denied, your appeal must be filed within three months of the deemed denied date. As a general rule, if the real estate tax on your domicile is over $5,000, you must also have paid all preliminary and actual tax installments on time for the ATB to hear your appeal. The assessors may grant the exemption or higher exemption in final settlement of your application during the three month period for filing an appeal. In that case, you do not have to have filed an appeal with the ATB. However, if a settlement is not reached and an exemption not granted during that period, you must have filed your appeal by the deadline. If not, the ATB cannot hear the appeal.
